

COSTS AND FEES FOR RESIDENTIAL CONVEYANCING

Each property transaction is unique so legal costs and fees can vary depending on the specific details, surrounding circumstances and complexity of the property involved, the title to it and the parties involved. Please call us on 01962 868336 or visit us in our office at 29 Jewry Street, Winchester to let us have the details of your proposed transaction as early as possible so we can let you have an accurate estimate of costs and fees involved before you are committed to the matter.

Our costs and fee estimates are based on the following presumptions:-

- the matter is a standard transaction and no unforeseen matters arise which add legal or transactional complexity to it.
- the property is registered at HM Land Registry
- if the property is leasehold, the transaction is the assignment of an existing registered lease and not the grant of a new lease or a recently extended lease
- the transaction is concluded in a timely manner and no unforeseen complication arises
- all parties to the transaction are co-operative, their instructions and circumstances do not change between initial instructions and Completion and there is no unreasonable delay from all parties providing documentation
- no indemnity insurance policies are required – additional costs and disbursements may apply if indemnity policies and / or supporting evidence are required
- no trusts or beneficial interests are involved or affected by the transaction – additional costs and disbursements may apply if the interests of any trustees or beneficiaries are involved

Our costs and fees are based upon a number of factors and variables which from experience we consider to be relevant to the successful completion of a particular transaction. These factors include (but are not limited to):-

- the amount of time a qualified individual would normally be engaged in the matter,
- the status and hourly rate of the individual concerned,
- the complexity of the transaction and whether there are any third parties or others involved in a chain or transaction;
- the complexity of the title to the property concerned,
- the urgency or timescales proposed in completing the matter,
- the value of the property concerned,
- the risk presented by the property and the transaction,
- the underlying purpose of the transaction, and
- the circumstances of the parties to the transaction and those of any connected or dependent matters.

If any unforeseen circumstances arise requiring further work or involving additional complexity we shall advise you as soon as possible. We may then need to revise the estimate of costs. Issues which add complexity include (but are not limited to):-

- any defect in title which requires remedying prior to completion
- preparation of additional documents ancillary to the main transaction such as Declarations of Trust, Powers of Attorney, Statutory Declarations, Indemnity Insurance policies, Deed of Variation, the appointment of additional trustees or executors etc
- the property is newly built or developed / extended recently
- the title is unregistered (any transfer or mortgage will trigger compulsory first registration of title)
- a mortgage or bridging finance is involved
- in purchase cases, whether primary residence, buy to let or second/holiday home
- where there are several owners with various legal and beneficial interests in the property
- a shared ownership scheme is involved or any 'staircasing' is required before or after Completion

- use of a help to buy scheme, whether an equity loan or ISA is used
- a purchase under right to buy
- sale or purchase by or at auction
- purchase of a property which has been repossessed by a lender
- the sale or purchase price is renegotiated during the transaction
- obtaining updated or amended mortgage offers during the transaction
- any unusual special conditions or instructions of a mortgage lender contained in its offer or standard instructions to us
- any retention of funds held by seller's or buyer's solicitor after Completion
- in leasehold transactions any unusual or additional dealings required to satisfy freeholders, landlords, management companies or residents' associations relating to notices of change of ownership or interests in the property, apportionment or rent and service charges
- receiving funds from or paying funds to anyone except the registered legal owners of the property and the additional due diligence and identity formalities required
- solicitors or conveyancers having to advance the matter or expedite it beyond the usual communication during the course of a transaction

To maintain our independence and ensure that we act in our clients' best interests we do not pay nor do we accept any referral fees or fee sharing arrangements with any other parties. This means that the whole of the fees you pay to us for our services are put to acting for you only and allow us to dedicate time and effort to your matter for your benefit alone.

We do not offer a 'no complete – no fee' service or insurance to protect against costs in abortive matters. However, we do ensure that our charges are transparent, fair and proportionate. We follow the Law Society's and the Solicitors Regulation Authority's requirements and will issue our invoice as soon as possible after becoming aware that the matter is abortive. Abortive costs will be based on our original costs estimate, the amount of time actually spent on the matter, the stage which has been reached before becoming abortive and the complexity and circumstances of the particular transaction.

We keep time ledgers on all matters and we are happy to disclose this to clients at any point of a transaction. Where a fixed estimate is given at the outset of a matter, time costs are not usually relevant to the matter in hand. If any fees are charged on a time costs basis our time costs are calculated according to the time spent on a matter and its complexity by each named person involved.

On most matters our time is charged at standard rates per hour as follows:-

Costs on Account

We will usually ask for initial costs on account, typically £100 for a freehold sale, £400 for a leasehold sale or a mortgage / remortgage matter and £500 for a freehold or leasehold purchase, to cover pre-contract title documents, searches and enquiries disbursements. Any balance unused will be held to your credit on our client account until completion of the transaction.

Stages of a transaction and timescales

The time a transaction takes from an offer being accepted until completion depends on a number of factors. The process generally takes between 8 and 16 weeks to reach exchange of contracts from the time that we have formal instructions from you and / or a Memorandum of Sale reaches us from the estate agent(s) involved. After exchange of Contracts, Completion of the transaction will be dependent on the terms of the Contract negotiated or agreed between the parties before the Contracts are exchanged.

Each stage of the process can be quicker or slower depending on the relevant parties' circumstances, instructions and terms agreed at the outset of the matter. Much depends on how quickly the parties involved wish to move, their particular circumstances, how quickly they respond to correspondence, the position of any third parties involved (such as mortgage lenders, brokers, insurers, other stakeholders) and the financial position of the parties involved. We will keep you informed if we become aware of any matters which give rise to a delay during the transaction and if any additional costs are incurred.

Note 1 – Bank Transfer Fees

Bank Transfer Fees are charged as a service and cover the costs of administration, security measures, bank charges and care of sending money through the bank transfer system. Typically, we charge for “same day transfers” CHAPS or international payments. We do not usually charge for other “faster payments” or BACS payments to accounts in England and Wales but reserve the right to make reasonable charges in these respects if circumstances necessitate this.

Note 2 – Onboarding Fees

These fees cover the cost of necessary electronic biometric identity check(s) together with our administration fee for opening and setting up the file on our case management system and Conveyancing Portal. The fee is charged on a per person basis.

Note 3 – Disbursements

Disbursements are fees and costs related to a matter payable to third parties, such as to HM Land Registry and Landlord and Management Companies and search providers. We are required to handle the payment of the disbursements on your behalf to ensure a smoother process. Disbursements do not usually incur VAT so the costs of these do not include or attract VAT unless otherwise stated. These fees vary depending on the property concerned, the local authority and the environment around the property. Other searches may be required and the costs can be significantly more than the estimates given above. We can give you an accurate figure once we have sight of relevant title documents, replies to initial enquiries provided by you and the instructions of your proposed mortgage lender.

Note 4 – HM Land Registry’s application fees are generally determined by the value of the mortgage advance as set out in the Fee Schedules available on HM Land Registry’s website. The fees for advances are illustrated as follows:-

Advance Values	Charge secured against an existing Registered Title	Charge to be secured against an Unregistered title (not including application fees for compulsory First Registration)
£0 - £100,000	£20.00	£45.00

More specific calculations can be checked using the Land Registry’s calculator at:- <http://landregistry.data.gov.uk/fees-calculator.html>

Please note that Stamp Duty Land Tax / Land Transaction Tax may be payable depending on the value of the mortgage advance and particularly if any transfer of equity is made, even between a married couple, and your personal circumstances. Please contact us directly to discuss the transaction in more detail before committing to any mortgage application or offer terms.
